

How can I help with the homework?

I want my child to speak French.
How can I help?

I won't be able to understand my child!

Are there other parents who feel overwhelmed?

Conversation between parents

Thursday, April 27 2023 at 7pm - Online

This session is intended to provide families with one parent who does not speak French with ways to help their child develop their French skills. The non-French speaking parent does not need to learn the language to support their child's language acquisition.

I want to register

During this session, parents will share their challenges. If you are looking for resources, tips and support, join the conversation with parents like you!

This session will be held in English and is destined to provide parents who do not speak French, ways they can help their child develop their French language skills.

This training offer is part of the pan-Canadian project La francosphère de la petite enfance
